

My Color Poem
By: David Elliott
Second Grade

BLUE AS a cloudless sky

GRAY AS my fluffy gray cat

RED AS freshly dyed hair

YELLOW AS freshly picked lemons

PURPLE AS the sunset at dusk

PINK AS a flamingo that just turned pink

ORANGE AS a big juicy orange

BLACK AS a big black bear

BROWN AS fresh soil

GREEN AS a tree with fresh leaves

GOLD AS golden ingots that were just made

SILVER AS a knife that was just bought

“My Color Poem” by David Elliott – LaSalle Language Academy, Chicago