

“A Talking Clock” by Grant Hodges, Oak Park

A Talking Clock

A clock always says Tick Tock and never says Mock.
It always likes to say Walk.
The clock does not talk
but it used to talk.
But now it's a building.
And then it's a light and then it turned into a walnut because it lived in a wall.