

"The Creature" by Madeline Hyde, Northfield

The Creature

High up in the sky, I fly,

I spy with my eagle eye.

Activating every seagull on the beach,

Scared out of their feathers.

Wind Whistles through my ears,

As I plummet.

KABOOSH! I clash with my prey.

What am I?

High up in the sky, I fly.
I spy with my eagle eye.

Activating every seagull on the beach

scared out of their feathers.

Wind whistles through my ears,
as I plummet.

KABOOOSH! I clash with my prey.

What am I?
